Over the Rainbow Bridge

Barb and Linda Coffel's Thor passed away on October 12th at age of 10. He was a lover of food and also a great companion. He will be in their hearts forever.

Also passing recently was CH Dalin's Legacy of Inanna, CD. Annie was 14 years old and loved dearly by Jan Martin and David Brattin.

A Special Thank You

I wanted to thank the members of WVESSA for the donation in my father's name to the Foundation for PRA. Losing him was a defining life moment and the support from members — the personal e-mails, phone calls and condolences — are very dear to me. The National is a blur (well, except for Jasper winning reserve WD!), but the kindnesses I remember.

Since his death, the City of Kent has dedicated a fishing bridge in a new park on the Duwamish River. It is called "The Three Friends Fishin' Hole" and a plaque will be erected to honor the three fishing buddies who perished in the plane accident. I think he'd like that.

The Proper Way to Cook with Dog Hair

by Mary E. Wooley

Do you remember the last time you had company for dinner and how embarrassed you were when you dug up several dog hairs from your best gourmet effort? That is because there is a right way and a wrong way to cook with dog hair.

First, we must remember each dish calls for a different variety. If you are unfortunate enough to own only one variety, I'm sure you can come up with a friend who will be willing to exchange the proper variety of hair with you. Or one could send off an order for a rare variety as they are light and easy to mail.

There are many dishes that are basic to most menus these can always be spiced up with the Buff variety.

These are especially useful when baking biscuits, pastries and yellow cakes. The Black and Tan hairs go well with Fall dishes, Thanksgiving turkey, mince, or pumpkin pies or even yams. Black of course is for your roasts, steaks, ribs and hearty dishes including stews which carry blacks well.

Naturally, Chocolate will go well with most desserts, unless it is a very light Jell-O type dessert. then go back to the Silver Buff. If you are especially interested in foreign foods most varieties can be used in Mexican Japanese and Chinese cooking. In fact, any nationality food will accept most dog hairs without hurting the food.

A good rule of thumb to remember which dog hairs go with which dish is — use them as you would a good wine — white wine and light hair with the delicate dishes. Dark wine and dark hair with the more robust, heartier dishes.

Use your dog hair in Good Health!
*Comment overheard at a dog show...
"One sure way to tell a real dog person, if we find a human hair in our food, we immediately say "oh yuck, I can't eat that it has hair in it!" If its a dog hair we just flick it out and go right on eating... Think about it !!!!*
